A Letter.

—We risk publishing this private letter for the benefit of our readers. We have never had the privilege of seeing sister Wilks.

Feb. 3.

Dear Bro. and Sis. Garrett.

Your Key to Creation and Formation is with me and never to be separated from me again, I also have your Key to Wrong Teachings of the Bible Righted.
Were you to see this latter book every page underlined emphasized where I put extra stress when I could comprehend that which had been such a great mystery, far beyond my capacity so when I could see and grasp its true meaning I would under score.

The more enlighten, the more enthusiasm, and marking, 'one could trace my eager mind for an understanding of the truth, however my book is not ruined only defaced, but I wish it that very way. And commence doing the same on my clean new book I surely love to read every word, and happy when the true meaning reveals its light and I can understand.

God bless you Bro. Garrett for fathoming out, and diligence study to teach us weak unreasonable people. I do appreciate your labor and investigation of the good book that I may understand.

Mrs. Garrett, I am so very sorry I did not see you when I was in Mo. But age is on me now and 64 years of my life gone, do not expect to ever return, however as long as I live I hope to keep in touch with you good people, as I never could understand the Bible until I read your dear book.s

Will enclose $1.50 for Book and paper. Please write me real soon, I want to ask questions I do not understand, will next time.

I study your books every day (usually) some time are interrupted with great love,

QUESTION. NO-21

Editor of THE WORLD'S CRESSET Please let me ask Preachers how they will harmonize those two scriptures.

"But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also." (Matt. 6-39.)

Also
"Abstain from all appearance of evil." (The 5-22)

Matthew says you must not resist evil, Paul says resist the very appearance of evil if preachers do not answer Ed.
you do please,

Mrs. Bell Moore.

WAR NEWS.

New York Harbor was closed By port collector's order U. S. warships turns back all vessels at quarantine.

On the 31 of Jan, a great surprise to all the world, unrestricted U-Boat warfare declared, by Germany.
The ports will be kept open at Hazards, the entents asserts,

We are not in favor of war.

But if President Wilson has to fight to preserve the rights of the American citizen against foreign intrusor. Which our fore fathers gave their lives for in order that we might have Liberty we think that it is the most sacred Duty of every true American patriot to stand shoulder to shoulder to our President on this point. But let us all remember that we should be strong in the Lord and the power of his might.

If we had a President.

That would not protect our rights, we would have to think that he was failing to do his Duty as a President. So we believe that it is our Duty to stand by him in the right of our protection of the American people.

New York, It is said on Feb 4 That an army of nearly 18, 000,000 men could be called to the colors of the United States, if necessary, according to a carefully prepared estimate made public on the 4th. by the executive committee of Mayor Mitchel's committee on national defense, of this number 10,535, 940 are between the ages of 18 and 45 years and now are physically fit for service in the field, it was said.

It is reported that, on Feb. 5, Germany acceded to the American demands for the immediate release of the seventy-two Americans taken from ship sunk by the raider in the Atlantic and brought to a German port aboard the steamer Yarrowdale.
(One of the last things to be done by the United States government before severing diplomatic relations with Germany was to demand that the Americans taken by the German raider from the British steamers Georgic, Mount Temple and Voltaire, and who were being held in German prison camps, be released.

A Washington dispatch Saturday said there were sixty of these men, Germany in holding them had contended that as paid members of the crews of armed enemy merchantmen they were entitled to no immunity.)

Washington, Jan. 31.—Germany has declared unrestricted submarine warfare.

A starvation blockade of England the like of which the world never has seen, was announced to the world today in notes delivered to American Ambassador Gerard in Berlin and to the state department here today by Count Von Bernstorff.

Thus begins the long-feared campaign of ruthlessness, conceived by Von Hindenburg it is said here, on a magnitude never even contemplated by Von Tirpitz

Again the United States faces severance of diplomatic relations with Germany with all its eventual possibilities. President Wilson's repeated warnings of a world afire and Secretary Lansing's "verge of war" statement are being recalled in the capital tonight with feelings of apprehension and misgiving.

President Wilson states Peace Plan

IN ADDRESS TO CONGRESS
MONDAY HE OUT LINES
WORLD'S PEACE PROGRAM.
DO AWAY WITH ALL
WARFARE.

All Nations on Furl Rights for Independence--Freedom of Seas, and to Limit Armaments--Sent to All Nations of World.

Washington, D C.. President Wilson addressed the senate Monday afternoon. He outlined a peace program for the world.
He designed to safeguard all nations against further aggres-sions.

He said he spoke "for libera's and friends of humanity in every nation." He declared lasting peace must be "based upon equality and common participation in a common benefit.

He said that peace guarantees must "recognize and imply a difference between big and small nations."

He cited the following basis or a lasting peace:

Add United States authority and power to all other nations' authority to guarantee peace and justice through out the world.

To found peace on equal rights To provide a united and Independent autonomous plan.

To give all nations freedom for full development of resources and a direct outlet to sea highways.

To establish freedom of the seas
To limit armaments.

At the close of his speech, President Wilson said: "I am proposing that the nations should adopt the Monroe doctrine as a world doctrine and that no nation seek to extend its policy over any other nation; every people to be left free and unfri-ed "I am proposing that all nations henceforth avoid entangling alliance in a concert of powers

When all unite in the same sense, and the same purpose, and live under common protection.

CITY JOURNAL.

THE NEW SHERIFF.

Sheriff Sanders, who assumed his duties as sheriff of Wright county the first of the year, has begun in a way that has won for him the approbation of all friends of temperance, sobriety and progress. Saturday, he began making Hartville look like a dry town by locking up a couple of drunks, and he says he's going to keep at it until drunk men are scarcer than hen's teeth around here. He is also mapping out a plan of street work which will give the city the cleanest and best improved streets of any town of its size in Missouri. He has already made some changes and improvements in the county jail and is demonstrating at every turn that Wright county has the right sheriff. He should receive the cooperation of all peace loving citizens.—Wright County Republican. —Clipped from Mountain Grove Journal.
